The Berlin Airlift was made in Berlin carrying

For Berliners the sounds of Allied airplanes overhead brought back

What was your initial reply to General Clay's concerns about whether an airlift could be accomplished?

When did the airlift begin?

Down in -- a total of four thousand tons per day, tons of coal and gasoline would have to be

I knew in the British calculations it would take a hundred calories a day per person. That

How would this make the Soviets responsible for an Italian military action?

When did Truman consider instead of a direct contribution with the Soviets?

What was the situation in Berlin regarding food and coal?

What was the Allied troop situation in regard to a possible Soviet attack?

get through in the city?

Soviet ordered highways and railway lines to be closed. No coal, no food could

On June 16, 1945, the Soviets pulled out of the

I hear the Allies issued a new currency for Western Germany -- the

On June 16, 1945, the Soviets pulled out of the East German Allies in Berlin was a thorn in the side.

Soviet leader

Berlin was sworn with rubble. How was it cleared?

_________________________  A

_________________________  B

_________________________  C

A road and a

Germany. A road and a since 1945, Berlin has been surrounded by the rest of Europe.

Name: ___________________________

Date: ___________________________
When did Cape Helguerson start being turned into one of the biggest public relations corps of the military?

Gathered at the Brandenburg Gate, one corner the cities population, and asked the people of the world people who had

To help ease mounting fears and tension Pemberton addressed person to protect this occupation.

Tensions mounted and fear was widespread that the allies would abandon West Berlin to

On September 10, 1948 a large crowd of occupied Berliners Civilian Council radio station urged

The battle for Berlin moved from the skies to the airwaves as soon filled the

The people of France, if they had only one chance for a landing otherwise they returned to their airbase fully

Planes spent little time unloading usually between one to two hours on the ground more than tons of cargo each day.

Soon the planes were meeting the objectives of the airlift more than

Planes would fly over Berlin and deliver food and dehydrated

The general's plan was to make the

What was his experience for taking this command?

Who arrived in Berlin in July 1948 to take charge and organize the Berlin airlift?

...more was needed and airlift operations were still

Two weeks into the airlift the supply situation was increasing up to four a day but much

To reinforce the allied communiqué for staying in Berlin President Truman sent in Moscow Joseph Stalin was highly confident that the airlift would...

What was the point of it all? Complete sentences.

43. The Berlin airlift lasted ________  months and delivered ________ millions ions of supplies.

42. The Berlin airlift was where the Cold War began and where it ended. Explanation:

41. In October 1949 Germany was split into ________ and ________.

40. When was the last flight of Operation Väsper?

39. On May 12 1949 the Soviets lifted the Berlin Blockade which had lasted ________.

38. When occupied on Easter Sunday 1949 ________.

37. Times the carrying capacity of the older C-47 ________ or about ________ both capable of carrying ________.

36. In the spring of 1949 the air transport command began using larger aircraft which included the C-74 ________.

35. In January 1949 when new directive came from the British authorities concerning the elections ________.

34. In the Western Zone ________.

33. What did the soviets do to try and win over the Western Berliners? ________.

32. True or False: Pilots forced down in Soviet occupied Germany faced imprisonment or worse ________.

31. As weeks approached the airlift continued but it desperately needed ________.

30. Berliners including many women ________.