

Dear Wood Park Families,

Once again this year at Wood Park, we will continue our love of literacy and our commitment to learning our 7 Habits by reading aloud various character related books.

This month each class will be reading the book Do Unto Otters, by Laurie Keller. This humorous story highlights the importance of good manners and treating others the way you would like to be treated. When Mr. Rabbit meets his new neighbors, the Otters, he wondered if they would get along. Mr. Rabbit soon learned that if he practiced the "Golden Rule" things would work out just fine! Mr. Rabbit also realized the importance of Habit # 5, Seek first to understand, then be understood!

This book, like many others, will become a part of our classroom libraries to be treasured throughout the year and for years to come. I hope you enjoy discussing this book with your children at home.
