September 10, 2019

Dear Rolling Hills Families,

We are off to an amazing start at Rolling Hills! Next week, we have a few special events that will be taking place.

- On Monday, September 16, 2019, we will celebrate Dot Day. Dot Day is based around the book, The Dot, by Peter Reynolds. It encourages students to make their mark on the world! We will be reading the story as well as participating in different activities. Students and staff are encouraged to wear dots or a shirt/outfit with any type of circle on it.
- On September 17, 2019, we will celebrate Constitution Day. On September 17, 1787, the United States Congress adopted the Constitution. To promote patriotism and citizenship, we are asking our students and members of our staff to dress in red, white and blue.

Thank you very much for your support.

Sincerely,

Jessica Santarpia
