Red Ribbon Week

Monday, October 25th - Friday, October 29th

Red Ribbon Week is the perfect time to teach the children in our school community the importance of making the right choices when faced with difficult decisions and making good choices in order to be healthy.

Monday, October 25th

"Love Yourself and Make Great Choices!"

Wear Red, Pink or Hearts or anything that makes you feel great

Tuesday, October 26th

"Making Good Choices is no Sweat!"

Wear Sweatpants or anything that makes you feel great

Wednesday, October 27th

"Show Your Love for Indian Hollow/Commack and for Yourself!"

Dress in Spirit Wear or anything that makes you feel great

Thursday, October 28th

"We are shining with great choices!"

Wear gold, orange or fall colors or anything that makes you feel great

Friday, October 29th

"Celebrate and Cheer for Good Choices!"

Wear Halloween Costumes - Fall Celebrations

Students will participate in Halloween and Fall Festivities.

Students will be going pumpkin picking in the courtyard. Thank you to the PTA!

Here are some other great family choices!

- Play a board game
- Have a TV free night
- Take a walk after dinner
- Go for a bike ride
- Go on a leaf hunt
- Make dinner together
- Try a new healthy food
