How do their views compare?

3. Making Comparisons

Both these writers speak about Napoleon and people’s liberty.

Kings?

2. What does Marshall Ney say about Napoleon’s right to rule as opposed to that of the Bourbons?

I. What does Madame de Stael say are Napoleon’s only methods of persuasion?

Sources - (1) Ten Years of Exile, by Madame de Stael, trans. Doris Bck (Saturday Review Press, 1972)).

(2) The French Revolution and Napoleon: An Eyewitness History by Joe H. Knecht (Facts on File, 1983).

Marshall Ney:

While the Bourbons are restored, the French church is to be again a state church. In my opinion, the nation is not yet sufficiently enlightened to support a state church. The Bourbons have never been able to reconcile the French people with their religion. The Bourbons have always been at war with the people, while Napoleon has been at peace with his subjects. The Bourbons have never been able to support a state church. The Bourbons have always been at war with the people, while Napoleon has been at peace with his subjects.

Bezons: Madame de Stael:

If the Bourbons are restored, the French people will become more educated. The Bourbons have always been at war with the people, while Napoleon has been at peace with his subjects. The Bourbons have never been able to reconcile the French people with their religion. The Bourbons have always been at war with the people, while Napoleon has been at peace with his subjects. The Bourbons have never been able to support a state church. The Bourbons have always been at war with the people, while Napoleon has been at peace with his subjects.

Follow:

Read and compare the two views of Napoleon and answer the questions that follow.

The Napoleonic Era

Do Now:

 Aim:

Lesson:
4. Do you think the cartoonist was a supporter or critic of Napoleon? Explain.

3. The buildings on the left are German and the buildings on the right are Russian. Why did the cartoonist include the buildings in the cartoon?

(b) Would the cartoonist have shown Napoleon losing those items in May 1812? Explain.

2. The scepter of saat falling from Napoleon's right hand and the globe with the cross falling from his left hand were symbols of royal power. Why did the cartoonist show Napoleon losing those items in 1814?

1. What appears to be happening to Napoleon?

A View of Napoleon
3. What countries gained their independence following the Congress of Vienna?

2. What country lost the most territory in the Congress of Vienna?

1. What empire was left out of the Congress of Vienna?

---

THE CONGRESS OF VIENNA

MAP QUESTIONS
5. Crowned Emperor of France in 1804
4. Defeated Italy and Austria and signed peace agreements with Russia and Britain (1802)
3. Named himself Consul for life and held a position which confirmed his popularity with the majority of the French people (1800)

IRRESPONSIBLE FIRST CONSUL OF FRANCE
WHAT WAS NAPOLEON TRYING TO ACHIEVE BY INSTITUTING THESE

1. Established Concordat of 1801, an agreement w/ the Catholic Church
2. Demonstrated Catholicism to be religion of the majority of the French
3. Encouraged religious toleration
4. Established Napoleonic Code, a unified system of law
5. Made all men equal under the law
6. Established the Bank of France
7. Created the National School system
8. All schools under the state
9. Made all citizens contribute taxes to the state
10. Developed a meritocratic system for the civil population

WHAT FACTORS ENABLED NAPOLEON TO SEIZE POWER IN FRANCE?

1. Napoleon's Empire
2. Napoleon's rise to power as the First Consul from 1799 until 1804

Global History II
WHY WAS NAPOLEON FINALLY EXILED TO ST. HELENA IN THE SOUTH?

13. Napoleon's conquest led to a legacy of nationalism and reform in Europe. As nations under his control
12. During the Hundred Days, Napoleon returned to rule as France's emperor until suffering a second defeat and exile to the island of St. Helena in the South Atlantic.
11. In the War of Liberation, an international force subdued Napoleon. Forced his abdication and

WHAT EVENT HELPED BRING ABOUT NAPOLEON'S DOWNFALL?

10. Invasion of Russia proved to be a devastating loss for Napoleon and France.
   By planning an invasion of Russia
9. Russia broke out of the Continental System in 1811; and Napoleon reached regions
8. Nationalist movements in Spain and Russia shook French control in these

WHY IS NAPOLEON BEST KNOWN FOR HIS ROLE AS MILITARY LEADER?

7. Carved an empire which included much of the European continent by 1812

WHAT WAS THE CONTINENTAL SYSTEM AND WHY DID NAPOLEON USE IT AGAINST THE BRITISH?

6. Forming a cultural system to invade Britain, Napoleon began a plan to destroy British trade
5. Through a blockade known as the Continental System
4. Adding a cultural system to invade Britain, Napoleon began a plan to destroy British trade
3. Adding a cultural system to invade Britain, Napoleon began a plan to destroy British trade
2. Adding a cultural system to invade Britain, Napoleon began a plan to destroy British trade
1. Adding a cultural system to invade Britain, Napoleon began a plan to destroy British trade