French Revolution without the Terror

The readers of the famous diary, Thiers, could have been aware of the events at the time. The Terror was necessary. The government was surrounded and arrested with men and women. The French were divided into two categories: those who were arrested and those who were not. The French government was in a very dangerous situation. It was... same instrument I used to serve France.

By now I was about to go by the

POSTSCRIPT

Somewhere I have read, "They live by the sword; they die by the sword."

"Soon I will join those who gave their lives for the cause. I am about to do the same."
