6. What type of government did the Romans establish? Describe it and explain why they established this type of government. (2 points)

Republic - representative form of government.

A consul controlled the army, elected to one-year terms by the assembly.

They established this form of government in order to implement a government of checks & balances.

7. What governmental concept shown in the diagram is considered an achievement of Roman society? How does this concept impact the world today? (3 points)

Assemblies of citizens - shows how all citizens, including plebeians as well, were part of the government.
8. What building is shown in the pictures above? (1 point)

Pantheon

9. What architectural feature is present? Why is this feature so important to future architectural structures? (2 points)

Dome - including granite columns made from bricks & concrete.