

Name: _____

Date: _____

Literature/Conflict

The CONFLICT or PROBLEM is the main struggle a character faces in a story. There are six types of conflicts that a character can face.

Character vs. Character (Person vs. Person): The main character struggles with another character.

Example:

---

Character vs. Nature (Person vs. Nature): The main character struggles with storms, hurricanes, forest fires or any other act of nature.

Example:

---

Character vs. Self (Person vs. Self): The main character struggles with himself or herself by being afraid, lonely, unhappy or angry OR with making a decision.

Example:

---

Character vs. Society (Person vs. Society): The main character struggles with rules, laws, or customs that he or she is expected to obey.

Example:

---

Character vs. Supernatural: The main character struggles with ghosts, spirits, or creatures.

Example:

---

Character vs. Technology: The main character struggles to understand complicated machines, or the main character is competing against new machines or inventions.

Example:

---